

What the Wrap?!

Description

I love wraps, salad wraps, corn wraps, vegetable wraps, halloumi wraps, salmon avocado wraps, what ever the.. wraps. And art puzzles, one of my guilty pleasures, that hardly anyone I know understands. Puzzles.., is that not for retired grandmas with not much to do. Well maybe, but also its something for Peggy. About 3 times a year I make one, like the "School of Athens"™ (Raffaello), "Cafe terrace at night"™ (Van Gogh), "Lady with fan"™ (Klimt) and currently "The tower of Babel"™ by Bruegel. Not everybody appreciates the puzzle taking up the space of 2/3 of dining table, but I have a new solution for that. Instead of eating around it (what we used to do) I cover it with a table cloth for dinner! During my wrap lunch though, I do not mind staring at Nimrod in the left bottom corner and putting a few pieces together. Here the ingredients of this particular wrap.

Ingredients

- Mini wraps (any kind you like)
- Smoked salmon
- Avocado
- Spring onion
- Spinach
- Sesame dressing
- Cilantro
- Lemon or lime

Directions

- Warm wraps in oven or pan
- Add all the ingredients mentioned above
- Eat!
